Highlights

60 hours playtime

The TAN1150 Neckband offers an impressive 60 hours of playtime, ensuring your music, calls, and entertainment never stop. With its long-lasting battery, you can enjoy uninterrupted sound for days on a single charge. Whether you're working, traveling, or relaxing, the TAN1150 keeps up with your busy lifestyle, providing all-day comfort and incredible audio performance.

AI noise cancellation mic

The TAN1150 Neckband features an advanced AI noise cancellation mic that ensures crystal-clear calls, even in noisy environments. By intelligently filtering out background noise, it provides a seamless communication experience. Whether you're on a busy street or in a crowded space, your voice comes through loud and clear, making every conversation effortless and sharp.

13mm drivers

The TAN1150 Neckband is equipped with powerful 13mm drivers that deliver rich, deep bass and clear, immersive sound. These high-quality drivers enhance your audio experience, whether you're listening to music, podcasts, or taking calls. Enjoy crisp treble, balanced mid-tones, and impactful low frequencies, all in a compact design that ensures exceptional sound on the go.

Multipoint connectivity

The TAN1150 Neckband features Multipoint Connectivity, allowing you to connect two devices simultaneously. Switch effortlessly between your phone, laptop, or tablet without the hassle of disconnecting and reconnecting. This feature ensures you never miss a call or notification while enjoying uninterrupted music, making multitasking more convenient than ever.

IPX5 splash & sweat resistance

The TAN1150 Neckband comes with IPX5 splash and sweat resistance, making it perfect for an active lifestyle. Whether you're working out, running in the rain, or sweating it out at the gym, your neckband stays protected. This durability ensures your device performs reliably, no matter the conditions, so you can enjoy music and calls without worry.
